

In order to launch and test this project it has to be opened in Visual Studio (developed and tested in VS 2017). After building and starting the project will automatically open new internet browser tab with address :

<http://localhost:59040>

In browser you can add, edit and delete database content by clicking on the selecte text.

To launch the project you need to have IIS Express installed on your computer.